

PRESS RELEASE

London – 25 March 2024

Alex Hall Embarks on an Exciting Secondment Opportunity with BZ

Hilco Valuation Services (Hilco) is proud to announce that Alex Hall, Director has embarked on a great opportunity to continue his career development, during an initial six-month secondment within the business development team at BZ.

Alex will be splitting his time between BZ's offices in Manchester, Leeds and London, contributing his expertise to their team.

This secondment will assist Alex to expand his skill set, gain invaluable experience, and establish new contacts within the industry. It is a testament to his hard work and dedication that he has been selected for this excellent opportunity.

"We are thrilled for Alex as he embarks on this exciting secondment with BZ," said Jason Hall, Partner. "His drive and passion at Hilco are instrumental to our team's success, and we have no doubt that he will excel in his new role."

Robert Wakeford, Managing Director, BZ, said: "Alex's secondment to BZ is a significant step in his career, highlighting his commitment to excellence and growth. This experience will enrich his skills and enhance BZ's development at a very exciting time for the business, bringing a fresh perspective. We very much look forward to welcoming him into our team."

We wish Alex the very best in this new chapter of his career.

For more information, please contact:

Rebecca Tjonis
Marketing Director
Hilco Valuation Services
rtjonis@hilcogloabl.eu
07979298272

About Hilco Valuation Services

Hilco Valuation Services is a unit of Hilco Global, a diversified financial services company with international headquarters in the United States. Hilco Valuation Services is an industry-leading, full-service asset valuation, advisory, and sales practice that puts our clients at the heart of everything we do. Major financial institutions, investors, and corporations trust Hilco to provide the asset intelligence they depend upon for their most critical business decisions.

About BZ

Part of a global asset manager with $37 billion of assets under management, BZ offers structured, multi-jurisdictional facilities that deliver working capital and corporate structuring solutions to support its clients' requirements. The company provides leading advisers and private equity groups with flexible structured finance solutions, including asset-based lending and cash flow loans. BZ combines the extensive experience, knowledge, and capabilities of its team with a proven track record of successfully executing large, complex multi-jurisdictional transactions.